

INTERNATIONAL MARKETS - DECEMBER 06TH 2018

End of day comment. Financial markets remained on tenterhooks amid lingering uncertainty that the trade truce between China and the U.S. won't last after the arrest of Huawei's chief financial officer. Elsewhere, oil continued to be a drag on financial markets, with West Texas Intermediate back below $52 a barrel as OPEC ended talks without a deal on oil production cuts for the first time in nearly five years.
